

DIDSBURY ARTS FESTIVAL 2011

24 SEPT - 1 OCT

DON'T MISS DAF DEADLINE!

The 31 May 2011 is your LAST CHANCE to enter for this year's Festival

*Film and visual arts events, including the Festival Gallery, Music, comedy, dance and drama, Writers and Poets, Photography, Storytelling, Bars, Bands, Children and Adult workshops, Cafes, Street Theatre, Parks, Restaurants, Outside Stage performance and...YOU?

DON'T MISS YOUR CHANCE TO BE PART OF THIS AMAZING LINE UP:
Are you an ARTIST wanting to perform? Are you a VENUE keen to host an event?

The deadline for Artists entry forms & Venue application forms is 31 May 2011

3 EASY WAYS TO APPLY...

1. Complete your form online <http://www.didsburyartsfestival.org/daf-2011-forms/>
2. Download your form from the above link and email it to info@didsburyartsfestival.org
3. Go to Didsbury Library or Didsbury Life (Burton Rd) to pick up a form

Artists and Venues will be notified of event schedules by mid July, latest. Contact info@didsburyartsfestival.org for further details.

STOP PRESS!! ...

DAF open competitions will showcase local talent

Three major competitions, being held as part of this year's Festival, are open to artists of all ages from within and outside Didsbury. See the competition boxes below and go to <http://www.didsburyartsfestival.org/competition/> to find out more and download the competition forms.

1. Photography Competition

Open to amateur and professional, judged by local photographers. The theme of the competition is 'Stories'.
Entries must be in by 1 August.

2. Poetry Competition & 3. Short Story Competition

The theme of both Poetry and Short Story competitions is 'Maps'. Blue Murder writer, Cath Staincliffe, and Didsbury poet Jeffrey Wainwright will be among the judges.
The closing date for entries is 5 August.

www.didsburyartsfestival.org follow us on twitter and facebook